

The other side

Don't hesitate - you're the soldier
Don't hesitate - you're the soldier

They're right behind
I' m on the other side
The only reason why I'm lonely here
Is the fear inside their lies

I hate your tongue and dirty money
I'm on the other side
But in their tales and in your dreams
I' m the orphan who dies

He's looking' at you
Proud to be watching you wearing his name
And then when your hands get dirty
There'll be no one to wash them clean

Don't hesitate - you're the soldier

Cause when the moon's in the dark
The mind behind is like the end
They justified their means
The hunted children
Will not forget what they have seen

He's looking' at you
Proud to be watching you wearing his name
And then when your hands get dirty
There'll be no one to wash them clean
