Take Out the Wine

Words & Music by Beth A. Schafer

Recorded on the CD May the Words

From all walks of life we've traveled just to share this time as one
As we leave the week behind us now that all our work is done
Now the sun has set, we can begin to celebrate
All the wonders of creation, so don't wait!

Chorus:

Take out the wine and pour a cup that's sweet
Honor The One who has blessed us with the fruit of our lives
Drink it to life, to health, and most of all to peace
(first time) As we rest this day together, Amen.
(2nd time) As we face the week together, Amen.
(last time) As we rest this day together, as we face the week together,
As we give our thanks together, Amen.

And as Shabbat is leaving we all gather once again
To send her off as gently as we would our dearest friend
We know she'll be returning so we'll let the flame go out
As we savour what the day was all about!

Chorus

Hand in hand, heart in heart, life in life, we never really part

O Sabbath Peace, come into my heart
O Sabbath Peace, please be in my prayers
Pour from my mouth and shower the children with your song
And dance with your tunes in their head 'til they have to sing along

Nigun

La la la...

O Sabbath Peace, come into my home
O Sabbath Peace, awaken in my soul
Stretch out your warm loving arms and embrace me like a friend
Then linger with me all through the week until you come again
