

ABC Privacy Policy

The ABC Privacy Policy explains our policy regarding the collection, use of your personal information. As we update and expand our services, this policy may change. By accessing our Web site or using our services, you consent to our information practices.

Collection and Use of Information

Personal information means information that can be used to identify and contact you, specifically your name, postal delivery address, e-mail address, payment method (e.g., credit card or debit card) and telephone number, as well as other information when such information is combined with your personal information.

When you register or re-register at our Web site, we ask you to supply us with personal information so that we can provide, enhance and personalize our services and marketing efforts. We use this personal information to process your registration, your orders and your payments, and to communicate with you on these and other topics. We also use your e-mail address to send you newsletters, as well as messages about ABC special offers, promotional announcements and seminar surveys.

ABC will not disclose your personal information to any outside organization for any other purpose not described in this document.
