

Seven Sisters

Brooks Williams

standard tuning version - capo 2

Verse 1

A A C#m C#m
Seven Sisters standing on the valley floor
D D E7 E7
Each one more beautiful than the one be—fore
A A C#m C#m
Up in these mountains the glacier's left be—hind
D D E7 E7
Through the trees I go, I walk a crooked line
A A C#m C#m
To an old foun-dation, a chimney and a stair
D D E7 E7
The trees have taken back this land as if no one were ever here

chorus

D Dm A A
The coyote runs in these hills
D Dm A A
The salmon swims in the river
D Dm A A
The trees are on the mountainside
Bm Bm E7 E7 A A C#m C#m D D E7 E7
If they can come back___maybe there's hope for me

Verse 2

A A C#m C#m
Down in the streets they're selling lies and preaching greed
D D E7 E7
You want happiness? This is what you need.
A A C#m C#m
I've been first in line with my money in my hand
D D E7 E7
Eager to buy everything, everything I can

Seven Sisters

Brooks Williams

Repeat chorus

Verse 3

A A C#m C#m
I've let myself get overrun, I've let it get me down
D D E7 E7
I buried my head in the sand, I have gone to ground
A A C#m C#m
But nothing comes from hiding or running a—way
D D E7 E7
It's not too late to stand up, to have your say

Repeat chorus

Tag

A A C#m C#m
Seven Sisters standing on the valley floor
D D E7 E7
Each one more beautiful than the one be—fore