

This is a sad song
This is a sad song
This is a sad song
And thats aloud
I want to go home
I want to go home
I want to go home
And thats aloud.

I want to go home
I want to go home
I want to go home
And thats aloud.

I want to go home
I want to go home
I want to go home
And thats aloud.

This is a sad song
This is a sad song
This is a sad song
And thats aloud
This is a sad song
This is a sad song
This is a sad song
And thats aloud

This is a song to, join with this world
Yearning for its lover to return
