

New Orleans - Daniel Dorman

Key G

Tempo: 84 bpm

G
This is the song we
G/C
Wrote together
Am
When you were still singing
D67
With me
G
I hope you can hear my
C
Voice in your mind
Am
Honey I hope you
D67
Know you can't escape mine

I hear you singing on the rooftop
of that house in new orleans
crying out to me
wanting to come home
and all those tears
they were music to my ears
thinking that you may
make it home someday
from New Orleans

They call me the madman
Because I'm still here
Singing half of every song Singing harmony on some
But they don't know you Desperate as you are They'll always be home here
No matter how far

I hear you singing on the rooftop
of that house in new orleans
crying out to me
wanting to come home
and all those tears
they were music to my ears
thinking that you may
make it home someday

I hear you singing on the rooftop
of that house in new orleans
crying out to me
wanting to come home
and all those tears
they were music to my ears
thinking that you may
make it home someday
hoping that you may Praying that you may
from New Orleans
