

Queen of the Roses

Music & Lyrics | George Gad

Verse 1

She and her eyes make me still wonder
How could I let her out of my life?
I have to hurry to find her now,
I hope it's not too late somehow.

Bridge

Now tell me, how she's going to love me
In my mind, I can't stop thinking that...

Verse 2

She and her name are made to fool me
Oh, God help me to understand
My love for her is more than anything
Like a fire is burning my heart.

Bridge

Now tell me, how she's going to love me
I can't stand these words coming out as I say...
As I say, as I say, as I say you have to stay
In my mind you're around, just stay longer for a while

Chorus

Oh, my sweet queen of the roses
I sing this song only for you
Just to hope you'll come and save me
From the loneliness I feel
