

8. HAVE YOU SEEN THE COLOURS?

Every working day
Every sleepless night
I hear people say: 'guide me to the light!'
In the factories
In the grey town-square
I hear people say: 'won't you take me there?'
Standing here outside your window
I can almost hear the grass grow

Colours, colours everywhere
Can you see the colours, colours everywhere

Changing every day, bending with the wind
See your destiny, let your life begin
Standing here outside your window
I can almost hear the grass grow

Colours, colours everywhere
Can you see the colours, colours everywhere

Colours – all around you
Colours – thoughts confound you
Colours – now I've found you
Open up your eyes!
Open up your eyes!

On the mountain-top
In your own backyard
Always be yourself
Could it be so hard?
Standing here outside your window
I can almost hear the grass grow

Colours, colours everywhere
Can you see the colours, colours everywhere

Written by: James Warren and Andy Davis
Published By: Sundried Songs/
Recorded at: Andy's place, Glenn's Garage, The Brown Ratio, Inner State
Engineered by: Andy Davis, James Warren, Leon Hunt, David Lord

Backing track: James Warren
Drum programme + electric guitar: Andy Davis
Backing vocals: John Baker, James Warren
Mixed by: David Lord