

Contact:
Jump the Moon Media – Carmel Mannion
Phone: + 0872800779

PAULY FAGAN

MartinCarmel Productions
Email: martincarmelproductions@gmail.com

PRESS RELEASE

For General Release

New Single Release: Saving Grace – Pauly Fagan

June 16, 2017: Navan, Co. Meath – Pauly Fagan releases new single “Saving Grace” from his upcoming album.

“Saving Grace” was written by Pauly Fagan about the internal struggles between pessimism and optimism, love and loss. The emptiness following a broken heart leads to self-evaluation and eventually a healing. For Pauly, it is the music that heals – his saving grace.

“When I wrote the song, I was working so hard and felt like everything was a struggle. I had to take a step back and came to realise I already had what I really needed – the music”, said Pauly.

The song has a light island feel like you have been on holiday and can finally breathe.

The single is available for purchase on iTunes and Amazon.

About Pauly Fagan: Born in Ireland and living in Navan, Co. Meath; he is a young artist on the music scene. A prolific young songwriter and performer Pauly will include “Saving Grace” on his upcoming album due later this year.
www.paulyfagan.com

For more information about Pauly contact:

Jump the Moon Media
Carmel Mannion
Email: jumpthemoonmedia@gmail.com
Tel: + 353 89 460 7519

MartinCarmel Productions
Carole Sceli
Email: martincarmelproductions@gmail.com
Phone: + 519 439 0606

Bio & Background to "Saving Grace"

Pauly Fagan is a prolific singer and songwriter. His music and the stories he writes are about the challenges we face and how we deal with them. Often about love and day-to-day life; his music takes the audience on the journey with him through the ups and downs of everyday struggles. His powerful voice and wonderful harmonies amaze audiences. He loves to be in front of a crowd, engaging them with his musical ability playing a variety of instruments.

2016 was a busy year with the release of his first studio album DEEPER. He traveled all over Ireland performing live to welcoming audiences all the while writing new songs and jamming with other musicians. Based in Navan, Co. Meath, Pauly has supported many charities performing at Oxjam, Big Viking Picnic, Earthfest, Women's Aid Ireland and most recently a fundraiser for Syrian refugees. 2017 has been busy so far and there is no stopping Pauly's momentum.

Pauly wrote "Saving Grace" as an honest reflection of personal loss and the darkness that holds your heart still. The lyrics reflect the helpless feelings that come with the death of a loved one, the end of a relationship and the efforts to pick yourself up and move on. "Saving Grace" for Pauly is the music itself not a person.

He recently signed a publishing deal with Universal Music and a record deal with AGR Television Records. The summer will be busy with all the gigs and festivals plus Pauly is currently writing and recording for his upcoming album due for release later this year.

Pauly is also the host of the "O" Sessions which promotes Irish musicians and their original music.

He loves performing and audiences love him.

To see more about Pauly visit – www.paulyfagan.com

MartinCarmel Productions

Carole Sceli

Email: martincarmelproductions@gmail.com

Tel: +1 5194390606

Jump the Moon Media

Carmel Mannion

Email: jumpthemoonmedia@gmail.com

Tel: + 353 89 460 7519

SAVING GRACE

Maybe I'm going to let me down,
Lately I'm only on the ground,
You've got to lift yourself up,
You've got to lift yourself up...

So take me from this retched soulless place,
Lend me a hand I need a saving grace,
Oh I wish I didn't let you know,
That I'm the one who's always loved you so...

Maybe if I had you,
I'd be in a better place,
Yes maybe if I had you,
My heart would only be feeling safe,
Because all I want is to kiss your face,
Yes all I need is my saving grace,

And the shadows in the night catch up on me,
They're the only ones who know inside I'm empty,
That's when I fall, that's when I fall.....

And milky stares but I'm unaware,
I'm breaking this body for too many years,
Oh I'm trying to distract,
Pretending that I don't really care...

But maybe if I had you,
I'd be in a better place,
Yes maybe if I had you,
My heart would only be feeling safe,

And the weight on these shoulders tries to drag me down,
But I fight it like a dog that just won't lie down.
That's when I climb these walls, that's when I climb these walls,

And it's taken its toll every single dawn,
I'm moving along someday I'll be strong,
I'm going to write this world a song,
Who knows maybe it'll be a number one,

But maybe if I had you,
I'd be in a better place,
Yes maybe if I had you,
My heart would only be feeling safe,

Because all I want is to kiss your face,
Yes all I need is my saving grace,
Yes all I want is to kiss your face.

Artist: Pauly Fagan
Song title: Saving Grace
Writer: Paul Anthony Fagan
Publishing: AGR Television Music Publishing administrated by Universal Music Publishing
Label: AGR Television Records
ISRC: DEY501700013
Barcode: 4260019221155