

MEDIUM BIO

Mary Read hails from Sweden, and consists of Lars Nerback (accordion), Teresa Axner (vocals) and Magnus Nygard (sequencers and soundscapes). Their music echoes of Nordic traditional music, neofolk, industrial and dark ambient.

The band's collaboration started in 2016, creating the musical theater show "The Life and Death of Mary Read", taking inspiration from the mournful sounds of traditional Nordic fiddle tunes, industrial music's mechanical beats and a host of other sources. The band quickly gained a cult following, and when they played Sweden's Visby Medieval Week festival in August 2017, the shows sold out, despite there not yet existing any recording of their music.

On May 18th 2018 Mary Read released "The Life and Death of Mary Read" as a concept album. It is available on all major platforms.
