

THE SAVAGE HEARTS

Short Bio

With recent performances at the IBMA Band Ramble and a #1 hit single on the International Folk DJ Charts, The Savage Hearts are the award winning fiery fiddler Annie Savage in concert with celebrated Canadian songwriter Tracy Lynn. They focus on classic honky tonk meets country gospel redemption and story telling that would bring a tear to a glass eye. Their 2019 partner in recording Greg Blake, says, “Even the most wayward prodigal would have trouble resisting the compelling grace that exudes from The Savage Hearts”. You can catch Greg with the grrrrls on Annie’s new solo album entitled, “Teaching Learning and Loving” and on select dates as The Savage Hearts Trio.
