The Savage Hearts feature lifetime performers and music educators Annie Savage and Tracy Lynn. Often joined by bluegrass titan Greg Blake and a regular cast of professional side players, the band's drill-it-to-the wall lady-vocals and bombastic instrumentals blended with just the right amount of saucy “been there done that” stage banter has audiences laughing and crying at the same time! Virtuoso instrumentals soar above vocals that are hotter than the punch of a ghost pepper in the middle of a hot flash. So who are these women?

With a vision of total world domination through vibrating wooden boxes, Annie Savage (founder of the Savage Fiddler Method and international performer/educator at www.savagefiddler.com) birthed the band “The Savage Hearts” in 2015 after years of playing side with the likes of Jeff Scroggins and Colorado and many a bro-band. She knew that she wanted to work with other women and she quickly contacted two of her closest friends from the musical world to form the trio. Tracy, who she had worked with at Nimblefingers Bluegrass and Old-Time Camp in Canada. This season, we are joined by our great friend and conspirator, Greg Blake. Greg appears on Annie's new solo debut album and is a longtime bandmate of Annie in her work with Jeff Scroggins and Colorado. Catch Greg, his thundering vocals, incredible flat picking skills and message of hope and awareness with the grrrrrls of the Savage Hearts. With her signature blend of spirituality and edge, Canadian artist Tracy Lynn (www.tracylynnmusic.com) is a soul sister who sings with the passion of a woman who has been there and is back to share her journey. She delivers her experiences through songs with a heartfelt authenticity and wisdom that someone traveled the road before her. Her warm rich melodic vocal stylings will draw you in little closer and then disquiet you with an edgy gravely sass. Tracy Lynn currently resides in her home town in the Comox Valley on Vancouver Island, British Columbia Canada. When she is not on the road performing or teaching, she operates her own business, Sound Waves Lesson Studio.

The Savage Hearts Trio is a teaching band that aspires to first bring the magic of music to the stage and then invites others to enjoy the gift of music through jamming and participating in the music with them. With big hearts and one mission, The Savage Hearts Duo, Trio AND Full Band (available on request) is a fiery stage act with big teaching ability all in one. Total world domination through vibrating wooden boxes!
