

Eighteen Summers

In the summer, we were just 18
If something was going on
We were on the scene
Never, ever crossed my mind
That this was only for a time

Always grinning, wild hair
Never shied from a double dare
We'd just been laughing with all our might
The other day
The other night

We raced our cars
And walked the tracks
Jumped off the bridge
Just to make a splash
Climbed the tower in the dark
Lit some fuses and watched 'em spark

Cold beer on a truck's tailgate
Pushing the limit, tempting fate
Couldn't get it off my brain
Line we sang from Fire and Rain
Thought I'd see you again, my friend
So much more that could have been

We raced our cars
And walked the tracks
Jumped off the bridge
Just to make a splash
Climbed the tower in the dark
Lit some fuses and watched 'em spark
