

ASHEVILLE CHORAL SOCIETY

SPONSORSHIP, ADVERTISING, AND IN-KIND DONATIONS

Asheville Choral Society is Asheville's community chorus. We enrich the city we all love through the transformational experience of remarkable choral music. Over the past 42 years, local and regional businesses have supported our concerts, our programming, and the 125 singers who come together in song for these powerful and inspiring events. We invite you to join us as we grow and better meet our community's needs.

We would be honored to count you, as an individual or business leader who seeks to support ACS's programming and mission, among our sponsors, advertisers, and donors. We can tailor your exposure and support to fit your marketing needs and budgets. For most businesses, marketing and advertising qualifies as a business expense on your tax filings.

Promoting sponsors will reach at least 3,000 local customers online, in print, and live in person, and advertisements in our print programs will reach at least 2,000 local customers.

Advertisements

Local and regional businesses show their support for the arts in Asheville and share more about their business, products, and services with an advertisement in our printed programs. Prices below are for ACS's 2019-2020 season.

Economic Impact of Arts Organizations in Buncombe County

Your support of arts organizations contributes to jobs, tourism, and increased demand on local services. Americans for the Arts' recent survey shows the following positive economic outputs in Buncombe County as a direct result of arts in our community:

- $17m in organizational expenditures by arts organizations, including salaries for arts professionals in our neighborhoods.
- $27m in audience expenditures in our cities and towns, including food, lodging, and other entertainments. $20m of this was from non-local audience-members, drawn to visit Asheville specifically by arts and cultural activities.
- Estimated 147k volunteer hours make this work possible.
