

Jason Moon, is nationally-known for being a versatile and dynamic performer who is both a seasoned troubadour and a dedicated advocate for our veterans. In his quarter-century touring the country, Jason Moon has entertained and inspired music lovers of all ages, in thousands of shows on hundreds of stages — from Summerfest's Harley-Davidson Main Stage to major national conferences to intimate house concerts. And Jason Moon is both well-respected and well-loved for the ongoing work he does with Warrior Songs, the non-profit he founded that helps military veterans find healing through music and art. Whether for ten or a thousand, at coffee houses and independent music festivals, Jason Moon weaves stories as well as humor into his music. Tailoring his performance to meet the unique requirements of each venue as he entertains and inspires both young and old, Jason Moon always makes it a unique, night-to-remember experience.
