

I Just Can't Keep From Crying Sometimes

My Mother often told me, Angels bonded your life away
She said I would accomplish but trust in God and pray
I'm on the King's Highway and I'm traveling every day
Lord I just can't keep from Crying sometimes

When my heart is full of sorrow and my eyes are filled with tears
Lord I just can't keep from crying sometimes

My Mother lives in Glory each and every day
My Father is gone, in this life he could not stay
I trust in Him even day to carry my burdens away
But I just can't keep from crying sometimes

When my heart is full of sorrow and my eyes are filled with tears
I just can't keep from crying sometimes

I thought when He first left me, I'd pray for a little while
Soon it would all be over and I'd journey on with a smile
But as I get older I still want to hold him
And I just can't keep from crying sometimes

When my heart is full of sorrow and my eyes are filled with tears
Lord I just can't keep from crying sometimes
