

Bad Bad Feeling

I've got a bad feeling, my baby's doing something wrong
There's a distance in his heart and it just won't leave me alone
I lay in bed I weep and moan I'm hoping that he'll call to say he coming home
I've got a bad, bad feeling, my baby's doing something wrong

Somebody hangin up if I ever answer your phone
Must be a wrong number you say just leave it alone
I'm giving you the slack but I'm running on low
You're cold shoulder is chilling me to the bone
I've got a bad, bad feeling, my baby's doing something wrong

You say I'm crazy I'm making it up
I'm out of my mind and you're the one that's fed up
Til we go to a party and she's across the room
I see you watch her as she slinks on by
Know that you know her and I'll tell you why
The last time I smelled that perfume it was all over you
Oh my baby's doing something wrong

My bad, bad feeling, was my baby doing something wrong
It hurts me to know that I was right all along
I trusted you, yeah and I had your back
You turned on me now that's a fact that
My bad, bad feeling, my baby's doing something wrong

I see you now she catches your eye
I'm on to you and your backstabbing lies
My bad, bad feeling was my baby doing something wrong
