

Baby Eyes

Her hips and eyes are switching back and forth as she moves across the floor
Her lips and thighs are plump with red disguise and she knows she looking for Run rabbit run, just run fast as you can
Cuz she's dressed to kill with her sights set on your man
She got her baby eyes on your man

She'll do anything she's got to do to get that certain kind of guy
She'll give everything she's got to prove she's the only one worth his time
She plants that seed and it's you that gives it sun
Your jealousy will leave him all but gone
Baby Eyes already won

She walks barefoot down the trail of broken hearts no she's no stranger to
A man thats bored and halfway out the door
No she won't waste an invitation from the call of desperation
The harder you play, the more she loves the game
Yea she sure knows how to play

I hope you heed my warning about that girl, she's got the Baby Eyes and blonde
That man he may be your whole world, but I tell you that she don't care
She takes it all before he realize
He fell for the devil with baby eyes
Yea she's the devil with baby eyes
