

Hot Spell

Withers/LaPeau/Caman

Album: Cry No More

Danielle Nicole

Baby skin and bedroom eyes Devil in disguise
Breaks the silence of the night Heaving heavy sighs
Starts a fire, deep inside of me
Rolling them bedroom eyes I can tell what it's gonna be

We're in for a Hot Spell
Just by the way that you look tonight Just by the way that you smell
Any fool could tell we're in for a Hot Spell

I see by the trouble you took tonight
Your Jello is ready to gel
Any fool could tell we're in for a Hot Spell

It looks like you've been getting ready
Gonna give you my love tonight
I'll be working that teddy
I think I'm in trouble tonight
You're gonna do me

The way that you look got me shook tonight
I'm buying everything you've got to sell
Damn fool could tell we're in for a Hot Spell

I see by the bath that you took tonight
With water from deep in your well
Any fool could tell, we're in for a Hot Spell
I see that you've been getting ready
Setting the mood that I like
It's hard for me standing steady
I think I'm in trouble tonight
You're gonna do me
