Album: "Cry No More"

Danielle Nicole

There's blood on my memory where you cut my pride
This bed of roses was covered in lies
Now blackness surrounds me, burning me up inside
I heard mama call she said, girl come on home
But I looked in your eyes and you turned me to stone
Yeah, you had that power but you ain't got that power no more

I hear you knocking like a beggar at my door
I ain't your sugar, so get on the floor
Crawl if you want love
Crawl on your knees
Crawl if you want to get next to me
If you want my love back at all, then get down and crawl

You made me cry like a rainstorm, when you shot me down
I was begging for mercy and you watched me drown
You were cold blood and poison, your love hypnotized
But before you could crush me I got hip to your lies
That walk on me feeling, well that feeling has died

You're just a snake shedding your skin
I see your colors, I know where you've been

Crawl if you want love
Crawl on your knees
Crawl if you want to get next me
Cuz' you threw my pride against the wall
Now you're gonna crawl

I was burned in a fire that drove me insane
Baby it's your turn, get used to the pain
