

Fade Away

Schnebelen

You so low down sometimes, the way you leave me crying
Seems like when you sleep is the only time that you ain't lying

You put the poison over me, that's what sealed our fate
I can't sit and watch you, watch your soul fade away

While you fade, fade away

I ain't gonna call, ain't nothing left to say Find someone else to watch you and your soul fade away
