What am I suppose to do?
Sing an innocent song, wrong!
I blocked you with a wall to prove
I've changed into another mood
Don't look to me to pull you through

Is this the way we'll keep on going?
Living each day so you'll keep hoping?
Shattered scars revealing pain

I wake up in a brain-sick room
Scratching lizards from my head
Dying, for I've picked dark flowers
Dying, for I've picked dark flowers

I wonder how to kill the hours
I wander naked under white suns
Confused and lost I breathe your power
Confused and lost I breathe your power
Am I wrong to live this way?
Dark reflections in mirrors
Dark reflections in mirrors
