Baby it's too late
You can't change your face
Like the next bite on her plate
No one can escape the victimizer!

It's the truth of the crime, that girl needs to unwind
Honey she is gone worse than ever before
There's talk in the town, the word's gettin' round
That she's going down on her... In a black garter belt

She cruises him, He cruises her, He cruises him, She cruises her
She uses him, He uses her, He uses him, She uses her

Ya act like a creep and then you walk in your sleep
You say I'm stupid and dumb, and my mother's a whore
The word on the street is you've got what I need
Tell me please baby, just how do I score?

*And here I will create my masterpiece with you
You made one mistake. Too many of my friends know that I am here!
Sorry but they can't help you...*

If you wanna survive, don't look in her eyes
If you wanna survive, don't look in her eyes
Surprise, she's got you by the horns

Ya think showing your madness
Ya think showing your madness
Ya think showing your madness makes you a bad ass
