

COVERGIRL BLUES

Written by Buzz McCoy & Groovie Mann

Published by SleazeBox Music / BMI

Vocals - Lois Blue & Lucia

Keys & Programming - Buzz McCoy

*Oh, that's what love is around this house... It's dirty and cheap and stolen!
You don't love me. You never loved me because you don't know how. (sob)
Oh, I don't know how...*

You'll miss me honey, when I'm far away
You'll feel so lonely, when I'm far away...

Why you little tramp!

*Haahhahaha... Come to your senses!
Come to my senses? I can never depend on you, you're always drunk!*

You'll miss me honey, when I'm far away
You'll feel so lonely, when I'm far away...

Why you little tramp!

We're all looking for love. Everyone needs love. Most of us are starved for love. The world would have us believe that popularity and physical appeal are what love is based on. We are even taught that we must love. That not loving is wrong! So we search desperately for love... If only for a moment to steal the knowing, hungry need for love. Our search may become so desperate!

You're gonna miss your little sweet, sweet mama!