(chant)

Go all the way baby!

(chant)

We leave our lives behind a curtain
Go Daddy go!
It's hard to keep the demons back
Oh Daddy oh!
Sometimes we need to Ride The Mindway
No Daddy no!
And trash our idle thoughts along the tracks
No Daddy don't!

Stray days, stray nights
Daydreaming straight from the past
Noise falls, we crawl back to sleep
And change our selves back into monsters

The wise have no doubts, no sorrows, no fears
I've measured rhythm through heedless ears
Voices are calling for the fools
Now I'm the desperate, a slave just as you

Piece a cake baby! (laugh)

Stray days, stray nights
Daydreaming straight from the past
Noise falls, we crawl back to sleep
And change our selves back into monsters

We leave our lives behind a curtain
Go Daddy go!
It's hard to keep the demons back
Oh Daddy oh!
We understand the black sky and it's dying
No Daddy no!
A schizophrenic child is ending time
No Daddy don't!

(chant)

We leave our lives to Ride The Mindway
Go Daddy go!
Oh Daddy oh!
No Daddy no!
No Daddy don't!
