Eligibility

All dogs that have an ID# with AAC are eligible to compete at the Provincial level. The event is open to all dogs capable of demonstrating the elements of agility, control and the mental and physical ability to carry out the required tests. Competitors, through submission of entry acknowledge that they are knowledgeable of the rules and regulations of AAC.

Dogs less than 18 months of age, bitches in season or in an advanced state of pregnancy, or dogs suffering from any injury or illness that affect the dog's physical or mental performance, and any dog which demonstrates signs of aggression towards people or other dogs shall not be permitted to compete in a Regional Agility Championships.

Regional Championships Applicants must supply AAC ID# on their entry form. Regional Championships are subject to all AAC rules and regulations except where indicated in the Regional and National Rules and Guidelines. All current members of AAC must receive a discount on their Regional entry fee compared to the entry fee for non-members

Safety at this event shall be of foremost consideration at all times. Handlers through submissions of entry at this event shall take full responsibility for themselves, and the actions of their children and their dogs. No leads, collars, food or toys shall be permitted in the ring during the Regional Saturday and Sunday events as per AAC rules. Food and toys will be allowed during the warm up runs on Friday ONLY, and under the following conditions:

- that allowing food does not contravene the site and/or facility rules
- toys should be in a good state of repair
- toys may not contain audible squeakers or noise makers
- handlers are permitted to throw toys to the dog or tug with their dog
- training aids (e.g. clickers, stride regulators, target plates) are not allowed
- food may not be thrown or dropped, it must only be fed from the hand or container

No entry fee will be refunded if the Event cannot open or be completed by reason of riots, civil disturbances, fire, act of god, public emergency, strike, thunder and lightning or any other cause beyond the control of the organizers.

Dogs must remain on leash and under control at ALL times when not competing or warming up or in designated off-leash areas. Dogs must not be left unattended except in the designated kenneling area and your dog(s) must be properly secured. Dogs must be exercised in the designated areas only. You must pick up after your dog on the show grounds and at your hotel/motel. Anyone found not picking up will be excused from the trial site with NO refund of entry.

All dogs must run at a jump height at which they would be eligible to compete in an AAC- sanctioned trial for the class in which they are competing, to a maximum of 24" in regular classes and a maximum of 20" in specials and veterans classes.

Competitors shall have the right to video tape portions of this event for their personal use only. No portions of this event may be taped for commercial purposes without the permission of the AAC.

REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP EVENTS

Each Regional will consist of 6 qualifying runs, which shall include; 2 standards, 2 Gamblers and 2 jumpers courses. Dogs must be entered and run all 6 classes to be eligible to place in the Regional Championships. All dogs not having a fully signed ID card shall be measured in on the first day of the event by the officiating Judge(s) and this measurement shall not be used on their ID card. A person may enter more than one dog but under no circumstances may more than one person enter the same dog. Dogs shall run every round, there will be no dismissing of dogs except for aggression, elimination in the ring, leaving the ring, un-sportsman like behaviour or dogs out of control.

REGIONALS RULES (Abbreviated version)

Complete rules can be found on the AAC website:

<https://aac.ca/en/node/718> (please review the Regional Rules documents as posted online – below is ONLY a few rules of note) – it is the competitor’s responsibility to be familiar with AAC Regional Rules for competition at this event.

The Agility Association of Canada’s Regional Championships are a prestigious event unto themselves and a steppingstone to the AAC National Championships. Dogs must qualify at their Regional Championships to be eligible to enter the AAC National Competition.

JUDGING RULES

For standard/jumpers rounds the following modifications to the existing AAC Rules for scoring a Master Standard/Jumpers rounds apply:

- Three refusals will not result in elimination (all refusals 5 faults no max.)
- Wrong Course will not result in elimination (all instances 20 faults no max.)
- Non-completion will not result in elimination (all instances 20 faults no max.)
- Elimination or dismissal will result in dog not scoring any points for that event.
- Competitors that do not run in an event will score no points for that event
- If a handler intentionally directs a dog to repeat an obstacle, the run will score no points and the dog and handler must leave the course at standard course time

For Gambler Rounds, judged at Masters Gamblers rules, except:

- All wrong/off courses after the closing gamble has begun (after the first gamble obstacle has been attempted) will be recorded as a failure to complete the final gamble.
- There will be no refusals called in either mini gambles or final gamble.
- If a dog takes two gamble obstacles in sequential order in the opening sequence the judge shall blow the whistle and the competitor shall retain all opening points up to that time.
- If the handler purposely touches the dog as a form of encouragement or reward in the opening sequence, the run instantly becomes an FEO run and scores zero points.
- The judge may inform the handler that the signal to start the closing gamble has sounded and the handler must attempt the closing gamble to retain points. They may still attempt the closing gamble after final signal (indicating allotted gamble time is up) in order to retain opening points.

In consideration of the acceptance of this entry by AAC and ▼ [DOC Agility] (the "Organizing Club") and the opportunity to have the Dog participate, compete in and/or be judged at this event or trial (the "Event"), I, the undersigned, agree as follows:

1. I certify that I am the actual owner of the Dog, or that I am the duly authorized agent of the actual owner of the Dog and that the Dog is not a hazard to persons, property or other dogs.
2. I agree that AAC or the Organizing Club for the Event may refuse my entry for any reason that it deems to be sufficient.
3. I understand and acknowledge that participation in the Event carries certain risks, including, but not limited to injuries (including serious injuries and death) to myself, the Dog, another dog under my control or persons attending as my guests (my "Related Parties"), damage to property and other losses. I waive any and all claims that I have or may have in the future against, and release from all liability and agree not to sue AAC, the Organizing Club or any of the directors, executives, committees, representatives, employees, volunteers or agents of either AAC or the Organizing Club (the "Personnel") for any injury, death, property damage or other loss that I or my Related Parties sustain due to any cause whatsoever, including negligence, breach of contract, breach of duty, statutory or otherwise, or mistakes or errors of judgment of any kind.
4. I assume full responsibility for the conduct of myself and my Related Parties during the entirety of the Event. I agree to indemnify and save harmless AAC, the Organizing Club and the Personnel from and against any and all claims that may be made against them or costs, fees, expenses or liability (including, without limitation, lawyers' fees on a solicitor and own client basis) incurred by AAC, the Organizing Club or the Personnel that may arise due to:
 - (a) any act or omission of myself, my Related Parties or any party for whom I am liable at law; or
 - (b) aggressive behaviour by the Dog or any other dog under my control.
5. I have read, and do understand the rules of competition and the additional rules (if any) appearing in the trial schedule for the Event, as well as the policies of AAC pertaining to discipline (collectively, the "Rules"). I agree to abide by the Rules and to conduct myself and the Dog in accordance with the Rules. I understand that myself and/or the Dog may be subject to disciplinary procedures or sanctions for breach of the Rules and agree to respect and be bound by any disciplinary decision made by AAC.
6. I understand that AAC and/or the Organizing Club may, in the course of administering the Event or conducting its activities generally, collect, use or disclose my personal information and that any personal information collected, used or disclosed by AAC and/or the Organizing Club will be treated in accordance with AAC policy and applicable privacy and personal information laws. I hereby consent to the collection, use and disclosure by AAC and/or the Organizing Club of my personal information.

Media Release & Rights of Privacy Waiver

I Hereby Grant to AAC and its affiliated companies, representatives, agents and assigns, all rights and permission to use or appropriate his/her and their dog's name, biography, likeness, photograph, voice, performing persona, or other indicia of identity for broadcast, telecast, cablecast, transmission or distribution in any format or media known now or in the future.

Waiver of Rights to Privacy, Publicity & Personality

Further, I hereby release Agility Association of Canada Inc, and its affiliates, representatives, agents and assigns from any claim or cause of action for invasion of the rights of privacy, right of publicity, right of personality, or any similar rights.

7. I have been given the opportunity to read and understand the terms of this Agreement before signing it, and have in fact done so. I understand that by signing this Agreement, I am restricting my legal rights and I sign this Agreement voluntarily and of my own free will.
