

Y-BOT

Spawned from the ashes of London art-rock group Manflu and the legacy of My Bloody Valentine, Y-BOT present a new vision of alternative 'noise-hop' in the form of their debut album "Young Blood Old Tricks". Y-BOT brings a mutated mix of prog-punk, menacing bass and drums and experimental fragmented lyricism. Produced by Rory Atwell, (Kate Tempest, Kasms), and voted Album of the week on The Artrocker Radio Show on Resonance 104.4 FM, London, 28th November 2017, the 10 tracks on "Young Blood Old Tricks" feature influences as diverse as Magma, Eric B. and Rakim, Can, Minutemen and Kool Keith, among others. Y-BOT are currently in pre-production for their upcoming release due for Spring 2018 with Producer Ant Chapman, (Arndaales, Collapsed Lung).
