

“Sherpa”

Written and Arranged
by Jeff Baker

You can't do this alone
You can't climb by yourself
You need someone to guide you
You need somebody's help

I have climbed up this mountain
Many times, many ways
I know every twist and turn
Along the way

And I'll be your sherpa guide you up the mountain
Pick you up and carry you if you fall
I'll lead you through it all
I'll be your sherpa if you call

You've come to this place
After all these years
Just to find your way and to start again

And I'll be your sherpa guide you up the mountain
Pick you up and carry you if you fall
I'll lead you through it all
I'll be your sherpa if you call

And though the days may be long, well, we will carry on
And when the nights get so cold, well, you've got a hand to hold

And I'll be your sherpa guide you up the mountain
Pick you up and carry you if you fall
I'll lead us through it all
I'll be your sherpa if you call
When you call
