

“Crazy Beautiful”

Written and Arranged
by Jeff Baker

Sun shines though the window, lights up your face
Your smile's electric, brightens up my day
Your humor's infectious, got me laughin' all day long
Your dress is eclectic, you're my kinda beautiful

There's something in the way you looked at me today...
And all I wanna say is....

You're crazy, beautiful
Like a rainbow, in a waterfall
Like a princess on a unicorn, you're sunshine in a thunderstorm...
You're crazy, beautiful

Like a lighthouse in the middle of a dense fog
You got my eyes wide open to all the colors of the rainbow
Like a cool, long river in the desert, bringin' your water to me
Like the sunset dippin' in the ocean, green flash is all I see

There's something in the way you looked at me today...
And all I wanna say is...

You're crazy, beautiful
Like a rainbow, in a waterfall
Like a princess on a unicorn, you're sunshine in a thunderstorm...
You're crazy, beautiful

Now, I hope that you can see, all your beauty underneath
And that you'll always be, more than just skin deep

You're crazy, beautiful
Yes, you're crazy, beautiful

You're crazy, beautiful
Just like a rainbow, in a waterfall
Like a princess on a unicorn, you're sunshine in a thunderstorm
You're crazy, beautiful
Yes, you're crazy, beautiful
