

"My Addiction"
Written and Arranged by
Jeff C. Baker

Just one more night, that's all I'll need
I swear this time is the last for me
'Cause we've got problems, you know it's true
But I can't solve them without you

Well, you know it when you just can't quit
Like my coffee and your cigarettes
Can't put 'em down now once they're lit
Got no resistance I need my fix, you're the habit that I can't kick
Too late for prevention I need intervention for my addiction

I should have walked away when you left me
Standing in the aftermath of the storms you bring
But in your sunshine eyes I, I find my highest highs
And I forget the pain I know you'll bring

Well, you know it when you just can't quit
Like my coffee and your cigarettes
Can't put 'em down now once they're lit
Got no resistance I need my fix, you're the habit that I can't kick
Too late for prevention I need intervention for my addiction

And I'm on a plane tonight far from these city lights
And in the desert sun, I'll break from my addiction

Well, you know it when you just can't quit
Like my whiskey and your cigarettes
Can't put 'em down now once we're lit
Got no resistance I need my fix, you're the habit that I can't kick
Too late for prevention I need intervention for my addiction

You're my addiction
