

BIOGRAPHY

Andrea Vestby “Beyond The Fallout”

Andrea Vestby is a Canadian Christian contemporary singer/songwriter and worship leader at The Father’s House church in Bon Accord, Alberta. She has been writing songs for 15 years, but only recently began recording. She is an advocate to end domestic violence by sharing her story. The songs on her debut EP, Beyond the Fallout, releasing March 29, 2019, were written out of her own personal struggles to find hope and healing. In the middle of chaos and pain, she encourages us to trust in God’s unfailing love.

She released her first single ‘Hardest Time of Year’ in November 2018. It helps us look outside of ourselves to see those who are hurting, Christmas is a beautiful time of year, but for some it is the hardest time of year.

She lives in Morinville, Alberta with her husband, Chad Vestby. They have a blended family of ten children. Music helps her express her faith and brings her strength and courage. Her greatest hope is that God will use the songs He gave her to inspire others. She plans to go back in the recording studio soon to work on her next project on the theme of faith.