tides & embers

Artist: Anderson-Gram
Title: tides & embers
Record Label: andegram Records
Release Date: July 15, 2019
Format: CD & Digital Download

This long awaited 5th release features deeply personal songwriting (don't worry...some of it is amusing) highlighted by fingerstyle guitar, up front lead vocals, haunting harmonies & light production on some songs including; bass, piano, violin, accordion, percussion & harmonica.

From the despair & chaos of the Napa & Sonoma Fires in 'Cold, Cold Rain', the sweet rules of growing up as a big brother in 'Little Sister', the battles with addition in 'Misery' to the humorous pitfalls of men of a certain age in 'Middle Age Delusions', these songs cover a wide range of emotions, all presented in the laid back, pleasingly folky Anderson-Gram style.

Gayle has always loved music & performing. Her parents say she was always humming and singing as early as they can remember & has been on stage since grade school (touring internationally with a theater group in High School and recording (2) a capella albums with the Wheatones of Wheaton College in MA).

Bob did not start playing guitar until his freshman year at the University of Maine-Orono in 1983 and started singing even later than that.

One fateful night in February of 1990, both decided to go to an open mic in Salisbury, MA. They met that night for the first time, became instant friends & inspirations for one another.

Gayle & Bob (Anderson-Gram)

In mid 1991, a friend suggested they do a song together at the Open Mic he was hosting in Dover, NH. 'These Times We're Living In' written by Kate Wolf was the first song they performed as a duo & they never looked back.

They released their first CD, 'Watercolors' in 1995 containing 11 original tunes and, of course, 'These Times We're Living In'.

They married in June of 1997. Before moving to California in 2003, they traveled quite a bit along the East Coast & Maritimes, as well as venues in PA (Bethlehem Musik Fest), WV (Shenandoah Coffeehouse), and TX (Uncle Calvin's Coffeehouse) collecting stories, images & inspiration for their songs. Gayle Anderson-Gram and Bob Gram have been playing together since 1991 and split time between CA and the Northeast.

"Gayle Anderson-Gram and Bob Gram have been playing together since 1991. They have been married since 1997. It shows. Everything fits so well together." ~Jam Music Magazine

"Anderson-Gram is a wife-husband duo with a smooth natural sound often compared to Kate Wolf and Jim Croce. Gorgeous vocals, intelligent, thoughtful lyrics and first rate guitar playing."
