

THE TRUTH

lately I hear the steroid lines but I don't hear the truth they sound so strong and they talk so long
but they don't say the truth

they pick you up
they set you up Prop u up.
Cut you up.

they pick you up
they set you up Prop u up.
Shoot you up.

they sound so strong and they talk so long they lie through every tooth.

the cost is steep
We see them creep
our eyes roll from the sky

but I see the truth

the man who bleeds
and the child who needs cannot tell a lie

the image speaks
our insides weep
We all know why We cry

We see the truth

lately We hear the steroid lines but We don't hear the truth

the image speaks
our insides Weep
We all know We cry

there's only one Thing that's done
hate ripped a hole in everyone of us.

lately We hear the sterile lines
We know
it's not the truth
