

BRAII^(UA)

BRAII is an alternative music band formed in 2017 in Kyiv (UA), playing in post punk and indie rock genres with fresh tones of Eastern European song tradition.

BRAII's worldview was partially influenced by the post-punk movement, started by Joy Division and the whole Manchester wave. Cure and other leaders of alternative rock, as well as the pioneers of the experimental scene - The Velvet Underground and the American singer and poetess Patti Smith with numerous followers of their musical and poetic radicalism, such as PJ Harvey, Mazzy Star, and others also took part in musical formation of BRAII.

The band released their debut EP "City of Nothing" (2018) on vinyl, took part in the BUSH Showcase, held several European tours in Poland, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary. BRAII took part in the National selection of SZIGET Festival 2019, National selection for Eurovision song contest, local festivals and had solo concerts.

The band released fresh singles and the new album this autumn. The new album released at 08th November. BRAII presented LP 'Lovely Dark Things' (2019) at the European promotional tour in fall 2019. The band had 16 live shows in 8 countries of Europe - Latvia, Poland, Czech Republic, Germany, Austria, France, Hungary and Romania.

The singles from the new album were offered at the European promotional tour in November 2019.

Band members:

Vocal, guitar - Oksana Bryzgalova

Bass - Aleksei Krivosheiev

Guitar - Andrei Shulakov

Drums - Slava Los

Sound producer - Alex Krivosheiev

Recording - Alex Krivosheyev, Istok Studio

Official website Facebook Instagram Soundcloud Itunes Spotify

