ABOUT THE EVENT:

Club 9-Ball is a new local band playing venues across Cape Cod. On April 6, they are holding a party, open to the public, to present their EP of original music, "Tomorrowland." The EP features 6 original songs written by band members and brothers Paddo and Seamus Devine. At 8 pm on April 6, they are presenting a live show of original music including the songs from their debut EP, showcasing their hard driving rock music. After the show, there will be a party with the band at Cape Rep.

Admission is free and general admission but reservations are encouraged to ensure you can get a seat at the party. Call Cape Rep's box office for reservation: 508-896-1888 or online at www.club9ball.com.

ABOUT CLUB 9-BALL:

Club 9-Ball is a Cape Cod based band playing hard driving original music comprised of Paddo Devine (lead guitar and vocals), Bobby Simmons (bass) and Seamus Devine (drums). The song-writing Devine brothers were formerly with local cover band Someone's Little Brother. Club 9-Ball has appeared at venues around the Cape including the Chatham Squire, and Oliver's and Planck's Tavern.
