

THE CLOUDS

The Clouds will entice and delight you with their floaty presence and good humour. Precious Cirrus and Thunderhead, two high status clouds, have taken some time out from their busy socialite activities to do some sightseeing on Earth. They are being shown around by Rhonda, a glamorous cumulous cloud hostess. Taking themselves lightly, The Clouds enchant even the heaviest of hearts and shine a rainbow wherever a storm has been. You can be sure that their arrival in your world signifies that things are looking up.
