

TIL SCHNEIDER BAND – SOLID SENDER (CD)

(Belmont Music)

HOT BUTTERED URBAN BLUES

Some high octane guitar spanking, greasy organ grooves and a beat so funky it's barely legal. Bluesenthusiasts, jazzpeople and music lovers of all shapes and colors, look no further. This band got all the good stuff you need!

On their debut „Solid Sender“ the trio around guitarist and singer Til „Guitar“ Schneider presents a honey-thick mélange of genres and styles within the Blues, spiced up with some sweet and gritty flavours of Jazz, Soul or Rock'n'Roll and a few real cool, funky tricks of their own.

Well-hung, handmade and aimed for the heart.

Everybody brings his very best to the table. Organplayer Gero Koerner contributes all his virtuosity and musical versatility while drummer Benedikt Hesse gives it that loose, funky New Orleans-flavour that we all wanna hear. On top Til „Guitar“ Schneider let's his Tele sing, cry and gently weep. And although these cats have all this jazzy, improvisational skills, the songs are still the heart of their music. Most of them self-penned by bandleader Til Schneider and presented with his relaxed, warm baritone voice.

Known as one of europe's finest bluesguitarplayers, Til Schneider is touring with Ray Collins Hot Club all over the world, playin all the major blues- and rock'n'roll-festivals.

As a sideman he played with such greats as Mike Sanchez, Andrew Williams, Charlie Gracie or saxophon legend Big Jay McNeely. Just to name a few.

Now, with the Til Schneider Band, he can show his talent as a singer and songwriter as well.
