

First Trip to Nashville

By Scott Wilcox - March 21, 2016

E
I'm on my first trip to Nashville and I got a brand new song
E
I wrote it in the bathroom and I hope you sing along
A
I sang it on the front porch and I sang it down the hall
E
I sang it in the bedroom and my wife didn't mind at all
B7
So Im staying here in Nashville in this little ol hotel and I said
E G A E
Open the door to the Commodore cuz I'm gonna give her hell

A7
Its my first trip to Nashville and I'm singing for ya'll
E
I'm not singing at the Opry but I don't really mind at all
B7
Cuz I walked on the streets of Broadway and every little honky tonk
E G A E
What love about Nashville is everyone loves a song.

A7
It my first trip to Nashville

E7
Its my first trip to Nashville

A7
It my first trip to Nashville
E G A E
What love about Nashville is everyone loves a song.

E
On my first trip to Nashville, and I wrote brand new song
E
I'll sing it at Douglas Corner and I hope you sing along
A
Oh I sang it in the bathroom, with the guy in the other stall
E G A E
And I said Only here in Nashville, cuz everyone sang along
