

The Art of Love

Written by Scott Wilcox © May 2005

It's okay to have calloused hands D/A/
Cause with a tender heart Em/G
That's a really great start D/A
You gotta learn to master the art of love Em/G

Hard work, low pay,
It's okay cause at the end of the day
You've got a tender heart
And you mastered the art of love

CHORUS

And as I walk in the fields of gold Em/G
I thank my God above D/A
For giving me the tools I need Em/G to master the art of love D/A
The art of love... C/G/D

You wake up and it's four a.m.
You got cows to feed and a fence to mend
It's a simple life, but enough to get me by
A great wife and a couple of kids
A legacy to the things I did, we were Simple folk, but we mastered the art of love

Chorus

Soft voice and a keen eye
These qualities seem to get me by
Just tyin' flies and masterin' the art of love
My life seems a little bit plain
But if I did it again I would do it the same
Just growin' dreams and masterin' the art of love

Chorus
