G D C G

We saw the Christ - mas star

6 Am C

from a hill a - bove our house as Ju - pi - ter and Sa - turn were a - ligned.

11 D G Am

The even - ing sky was clear. There was no - thing in the way.

16 C D G

We gazed at it in won - der for a while.

20 D/F# Em C

In that mo - ment of per - fec - tion, in that hea - ven - ly con - junc -

24 G A D

- tion, there was whole - ness in the dark - ness of the night. So, we stood

29 G C

there in the si - lence and we of - fered our thanks - giv - ing for the dark -

33 G D C

- ness, for the won - der, for the light. Back

37 G Am
 here on pla-net Earth, things are bro-ken all a - round from ill -

41 C D G
 - ness and from vio-lence and mis - trust. We cry out in our

46 Am C
 pain. We are temp-ted to des - pair. We ache to build a land

50 D G D/F# Em
 — that's kind and just. How we yearn for that com-plete - ness, for the

55 C G A
 sim-ple ho - ly sweet - ness of a world where right re-la - tions are re - stored.

59 D G C
 — But we fum - ble and we strug-gle, or it seems like too much

64 G D C
 trou-ble and we learn to live with ha - tred and with war.

 Ooo Ooo

74 D C G
 The hope that still re-mains must be in the work we do, in how we face our fear and play our parts.

79 Am C

83 D G Am

The gift we each can bring is our pas-sion for sha-lom,

88 C D G D/F#

the Christ-mas star that's burn-ing in our hearts. As the days

93 Em C

are grow-ing long - er, may our need for peace grow strong-er May it

97 G A D

come to birth as day is born from night. May our bo - dies, hearts and minds like the pla-nets be a - lined till the

101 G C

105 G D C Em

bro-ken is made whole through-out our lives. Ooo
