

is a force of sunny music that empowers women to shine.

With the flowers in her hair and her famous barefoot stage performance she is a 'neohippie-goddess'.

The German Press calls her ' a romantic as delicate as a feather' (Koelner Stadt Anzeiger)

She has fused the very best of Bach and Beethoven as well as other classical composers with her pop songs that are not only true to her heart but also contain a lot of humour.

Her crystal clear, gorgeous voice, her enticing hook melodies and her authentic and unique perspective, makes gg a new star to be born in the world of pop.

Stepping into gg's world full of beauty and delight is a pleasure, no one should miss. (Rachel Chantal Hoffmann)
