

BIO

- Leila (pronounced Lay-la) is a multilingual artist/songwriter who was born in Argentina to Spanish parents. She grew up in Barcelona and Valencia Spain and later moved to Canada and now resides in the United States.
- Her debut "Of Life" resulted in a huge worldwide fan base. It topped in several music charts including several top 10 songs in genres like Soul, R&B, Latin, Adult Contemporary. It reached the #16 spot on MP3.Com's Top 40 – which had over 400,000 songs and artists.
- Her latest release, "SOUL ASCENSION" blends lyrical depth, introspection and vulnerability with smooth sultry vocals and an emphasis on humanitarianism, unity and positive uplifting messages. Guest appearances include the brilliant Eric Darius, on the romantic single "Sexy Saxophone;" production by hit songwriter/producer and smooth jazz artist Funkee Boy; world renowned and acclaimed flamenco guitarist Romero and Grammy award winning producer, K.C. Porter (Santana, Ricky Martin, Janet Jackson, Brian McKnight) who is also featured on vocals on the song "Change" with Leila.
- Leila's music was featured on major network like CBS, NBC, ABC, FOX, VH1, HBO, SHOWTIME and popular shows such as "The Young And The Restless;" "Days Of Our Lives," "All My Children;" HBO's "Soulfood" series, "90210" and several made for TV movies including the ending song on "They Call Me Sir" starring Michael Clark Duncan of "The Green Mile".
- LIVE PERFORMANCES: Leila performed in concert with Latin Grammy winner Gilberto Santa Rosa, Charlie Zaa and Tony Vega at Mohegan Sun Arena. She performed at the legendary, late Michael Jackson's Neverland Ranch which is by invitation only. She also performed at The Globe Theatre (Universal Studios) Hollywood, honoring the legacy of Jim Henson and at BB King Blues Club - Foxwoods Resort and Casino.
- Recently, Leila appeared on the CD "Songs of Hope and Unity" as one of only 40 songwriters invited to attend the "Oneness Songwriter Summit" with industry greats like Brian Culbertson; MOTOWN LEGEND Lamont Dozier, R&B singer Carl Thomas and KC Porter. Oneness, whose board members include Santana, among other iconic musicians, is a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of racial equality and tolerance and aims to spread unity consciousness through music and the arts.
