

WAKE UP

“Raise your hand, sweetheart, “
they taught you as a child, “Don’t speak so passionately,
better if you are quiet.”
Treasures of youth
are taken away without remorse,
Opening up your coffin,
thrills vanish with the wind. (2x)

Are you staying?
Or are you leaving?
Are you staying?
No! Now you’re leaving!
Get away from here!

(instrumental)

How content is your name
when you realize that the only choice you have is to leave?
So they taught you to stay still watching a life that is not yours?

Are you staying?
Or are you leaving?
Are you staying?
No! Now you’re leaving!
Get away from here!
Get away from here!
Get away from here!

“Raise your hand, sweetheart, “
they taught you as a child,
“Don’t speak so passionately,
better if you are quiet.”
Treasures of youth
are taken away without remorse,
Opening up your coffin,
thrills vanish with the wind.

Are you staying?
Or are you leaving?
Are you staying?
No! Now you’re leaving!
Get away from here!
Get away from here!
Get away from here!

Night falls
your saint dances
mockery poisons your perception.

Ignorance shines
the milk has gone sour long is the list of deception.

Aimless ship
the storm is coming your heart feels dirty.

You no longer see the present from so much pressure that the future is causing you.

So come on, wake up! Wake up! Wake up!
Wake up!

Are you staying?
Or are you leaving?
Are you staying?
No! Now you’re leaving!
Get away from here.
Wake up.
