

SUPERFICIAL

You speak and you speak without saying much
Such beautiful lips only to laugh
So many words and nothing stays in the end.

That gaze says nothing to me
So much emptiness gives me chills
I want to think that at some point your mind will get bored.

Superficial!
No one can stop this bullshit!
I'm tired of watching
this vulgar way
of living life with such lack of beauty
I certainly don't want to be this way.

(instrumental)

Tell me, darling, what is going on with you Because I can imagine, somewhere beneath the surface must be a reason for you to become such a purposeless idiot.

I love madness and breaking patters
I love to yell and cry without reason
Don't misunderstand me, let me explain what I mean.

One has certain pride in thinking differently.
I know you have it, it breaks my mind
how you can waste such incredible potential?

You could inspire other people to start living their present more consciously to elevate their minds.

Superficial!
No one can stop this bullshit!
I'm tired of watching
this vulgar way
of living life with such lack of beauty
I must certainly don't want to be so superficial!
No one can stop this bullshit!
I'm tired of watching
this vulgar way
of living life with such lack of beauty
I tell you certainly,
I certainly don't want to be this way.
