Mike Anderson

Author • Singer • Storyteller • Dulcimer Player Educator • Workshop Leader • Multi-Instrumentalist

Workshop Options:

Option 1: A Show

Mike's kids' shows are legendary. His dynamic performance style keeps the audience, both young and old, entranced. Stories and five different musical instruments make his shows kids will talk about for quite a while.

Option 2: Build a Junk Instrument

A) A demonstration of musical instruments beginning with a horse's jawbone and ending with a modern guitar. Mike walks through the development of folk instruments discussing and demonstrating what our ancestors used to make music. (All ages)

B) A short talk on the history of instruments and then the actual building of an instrument using tin cans, fishing line, a chunk of wood and some adult helpers. (Ages 7+)

Option 3: Storytelling

Mike is a renowned storyteller with the ability to reach audiences of all ages. Whether telling his stories of growing up with his next-door neighbor Denny or relating traditional tales, Mike blends stories and music into a great show.

Thad Beach

Thad Beach in Concert

Children's performer, songwriter and teaching artist Thad Beach performs a variety of programs at libraries, schools, and festivals. All programs feature original songs and stories and lots of audience participation. Thad performs on ukulele, harmonica, jaw harp and guitar while audience members experience unique homemade instruments from his "Band in a Bucket." Complete with props, backdrop and sound system, Thad is truly a one-man band. He is an approved artist with Wichita Arts Partners, Wolf Trap Institute for Early Learning Through the Arts, Kansas Arts Commission Touring Roster, Nebraska Artists in Schools and Communities.

The Polka Dot Cafe

This is an educational extravaganza of laughter, language arts, rib-tickling rhymes, tongue-twisting tales, and amazing acts of alliteration. Sit down for a breakfast of "two blue biscuits, a yucky yellow yolk, a bowl of green grits and turquoise toast!" Come find out if there is a Zoo in "Kalamazoo"! Sail with "Captain Davey and the Gravy Boat Navy."

Tall Tales From Catfish County

On this leg pullin', truth stretchin' journey you'll meet "Catfish Sal the Stump Rootin' Gal" and "Old Sniff the Fortune Tellin' Catfish," you'll sing the "Blue Cat Blues," you'll learn why "Bullheads Love the Mud" and you'll go "Road Bootin' and Chicken Fishin'" with Mad Tom Madison. Reel 'em in with "Catfish County"!

The Mixed Up Mystery of Song City

Thad Beach presents a new program each summer geared to the Summer Reading theme. Have your 2007 summer readers "Get a Clue" with Thad Beach.

Target Group: Programs are adaptable for all ages and family audiences.

Length: 45 minutes.

Fee: $250 plus travel, negotiable. Block bookings can be arranged.

Judy Domeny Bowen

Oh, Pioneer!

Ages: 6-12 Length: 30-60 minutes

This interactive presentation by elementary teacher Judy Domeny Bowen is chock full of information about America's early pioneers. Based on the old saying "use it up, wear it out, make it do, or do without," Judy displays and discusses animal skulls and hides, quilts, a washboard, children's toys, products made from antlers and corn, patterned feed sacks and more. Judy intersperses traditional American folksongs throughout the presentation, accompanying herself on the guitar, banjo and mountain dulcimer. Children sing along on lively tunes. If time allows, Judy teaches the children how to play the spoons and the limberjacks and leads them in a simple folk dance.

Animals All Around Us

Ages: 6-12 Length: 30-45-minutes

One day the "Old Gray Mare" was "Going to the Zoo" and saw that "Old Woman Who Swallowed a Fly." Well, you can believe she ran "Over in the Meadow" to "Go Tell Aunt Rhody"! Bring your imaginary guitar and join in musical fun with folk singer Judy Domeny Bowen. Sing and strum along on favorite old-timey animal songs and learn some most amazing facts about animals of Missouri.

Bummer the Drummer

Bummer the Drummer & the Kansas City Street Band

Lessons in Rhythm, Lessons in Life

This program explores how we are all linked up together with the sounds in nature and the sounds in our lives. Drawing upon over 40 years of experience touring in the music business, Glen "Bummer the Drummer" Ward, singing and accompanied by various instruments, including the acoustic guitar, drums and percussion, will endeavor to explore the "wave beats of our daily lives." It is surprising, interesting, exciting, hands-on, interactive and, above all else, it is a whole lot of fun. Suitable for K-fifth grade up to adult audiences. It is 45 minutes and the fee is $450.

The Musi-mobile: A Brief History of African-American Music

Performed by Bummer the Drummer and the Kansas City Streetband

This presentation starts with an introductory musical performance by the six piece horn band of songs tracing the African-American musical lineage from the 1600s forward. Along the way, the presentation encompasses spirituals, jazz, blues, rhythm and blues, soul, rock n roll, pop and, finally, rap. A question and answer segment is next, and the final segment is a performance of three to five songs with student musicians from the host community playing with the band. The total presentation time is one to one and a half hours. Very family-friendly and suitable for K-fifth grade up to adult audiences The fee is $1100.

Annette Harrison

Storyteller!
Educator!
Author!

A multi-talented storyteller, performer, author and educator, Annette Harrison draws in her listeners with amazing dramatic abilities. Her high energy and sometimes over the top but always heartfelt delivery has earned her the title of "kid-magnet."

The children shout "You're funny!" and she is, but serious and important messages are hidden within the stories. Annette feels strongly about teaching through storytelling, whether it be character education, important events in history or insights into the diverse cultures of the world.

She has traveled throughout the United States performing, teaching, and giving keynote addresses. She has written two highly acclaimed storytelling resource books and was cohost of "Gator Tales," a children's television program on CBS promoting literacy, responsibility and self-esteem.

Educational & Entertaining Storytelling Programs for 2006-2007
Lots of audience participation and role-playing

INCREDIBLE INVENTORS

Take a trip inside the minds of inventors and hear stories about their wild, wacky and sometimes practical inventions. You'll be astonished by tales of things invented by sheer accident, of inventions that almost failed and of supposedly impossible inventions that remain with us to this very day. Learn about inventions like potato chips, post-it notes, tea, denim jeans, dynamite, the Jolly Jumper baby harness and many more! You'll be so inspired, you'll start planning an invention of your own. Ages 4 and up.

IT'S A MYSTERY TO ME!???

Do you have a clue about how the tiger got its stripes? Or why birds fly south for the winter? Why is an elephant's trunk so long? Who is that lady in the moon? Folklore from different cultures makes up this mystery-solving storytelling program. Ages 3 and up.

ABE, OUR GREATEST PRESIDENT!

Audiences will be enthralled with Jo's living history storytelling program as she portrays the memorable characters of Nancy Hanks, Sally Lincoln, Sarah Bush Johnston, Mary Todd Lincoln and more. She'll captivate listeners as she tells true stories of Abe Lincoln, sharing the wit, wisdom, and perseverance of the unlikely man that became our 16th president. Ages 10 and up.

Average fee $150 with added mileage where applicable
No technical requirements, sound system provided by performer.

Clement McCrae Puppet Shows

Marionette Variety Show for All Ages

We can hold your audience spellbound!

Rave Reviews:

"This is great entertainment! We're having you back next year!"

"Artistic and silly too!"

"Polished professionalism"

Our shows are mostly marionettes, with rod puppets and hand puppets and all are set to music. They are set in short little acts performed out front where you can see the puppeteers. This is not a just-for-kids puppet show. Our shows are about the lush cornucopia of cultures. Each little vignette is two to three minutes and very easy to follow for the young or old. In a matter of moments we are on to something entirely different.

We offer a special library rate pending availability: $229
(plus travel expense for locations outside the Kansas City area)

Richard Renner

Richard Renner in...“Read All About It!”

One of the America's most beloved clowns bring his talents to school to illustrate the joy of reading.

For over 16 years, Richard Renner has brought laughter to kids across the country and now he presents his skills in a fast paced and frenetically funny program called “Read All About It!”

Through his well crafted comic characters we take a tour of the library and share their favorite books. Richard brings each character's book to life with his circus skills. There's a pilot who shows us the proper way to fly a stunt plane, a bungling scientist who introduces us to big words and a musician who gets the kids involved as they learn to read music. These skits and more give your students a taste of the thrill of reading a good book.

This is a perfect show for students just beginning to read or those who need to be inspired to visit the library again. This fun-filled performance is perfectly suited to first through eighth graders. Many teachers have been impressed with the amount of information presented and the good time everyone has as they learn to “Read All About It!”

YASIG

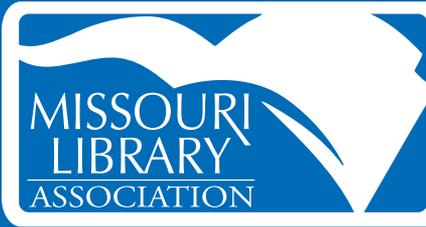

The Young Adult Special Interest Group (YASIG) of the Missouri Library Association exists to promote the development of and increase in library services for the young adult population (youth ages 12-19) of the state.

Recognizing that it is during the teen years that previously active patrons tend to disconnect from the library, we particularly seek ways to invite and encourage the use of the public library by this age group.
