

Show 50 - #PurplePain: A tribute to the music of Prince

The recent death of my biggest musical hero – Prince – has inspired me to devote an entire show to celebrating his music. Sit back and enjoy over 4 ½ hours of Prince jams. I didn't want to simply re-hash what the radio has been doing over the last week, so you'll hear more than just the big hits. Deep album cuts, full 12" mixes, remixes, alternate versions of classics and unreleased tracks are featured in this epic set.

As always there is a hot DJ mix – all Prince of course. And we close out with a full hour of some of his best ballads. Enjoy!
