

Christopher Marlowe

Christopher Marlowe, born in a trunk in Washington, D.C., was the recipient of the 1996 Manhattan Association of Cabaret's Award for Music Director of the Year. Until her untimely death in 1995, Chris was principally associated with singer Nancy LaMott.

Nancy's eight albums are still played on hundreds of radio stations around world. They include "Beautiful Baby" (1991), "The Songs of Johnny Mercer" (1992), "My Foolish Heart" (1993), "Just in Time for Christmas" (1994), "Listen To my Heart" (1995), "What's Good About Goodby" (1996), and "Live at Tavern on the Green" (2005). "Ask Me Again" spent three weeks at the top of the Billboard charts in 2008.

At this writing he has music directed/ arranged and co-produced over 50 CD's of 30 different vocalists. In 2008 Hal Leonard published his best-known arrangements.

Chris conducted, arranged and recorded with Kathie Lee Gifford, worked on a pre-Broadway one woman show with Bernadette Peters, music directed David Zippel's All Girl Band at Joe's Pub and "It's Better With a Band" at The Prince Music Theater in Philadelphia.

In 2013, Christopher music directed and played for Elaine Paige's first US concert tour, and music directed "Marvin Hamlisch: They're Playing His Songs" at the Cape Playhouse in Dennis, Massachusetts. and the McCallum Theater in Palm Desert, California.

He has performed on Good Morning America, The Today show, Live with Regis and Kathie Lee, The View, The Rosie O'Donnell Show, Late Night With David Letterman, American Idol, Carnegie Hall and twice at the Clinton White House.