

“V” ~ The Gypsy Cowbelle

2020 short biography

A bona fide troubadour, The Gypsy Cowbelle shares a glimpse of the road less traveled through clever lyrics, dynamic rhythms, compelling stories and an infectious smile. Her resume reveals chapters of a ranch caretaker, wrangler, teamster, log home chinker, river guide, instrument builder, leather worker, film maker and recording artist. Miss “V” offers programs on women’s and western history, Homespun Instruments, leatherworking and Amelia Earhart. Her diverse presentations earned her the prestigious Wyoming Arts Council Fellowship Award while her innovative banjo making endeavors have been rewarded with a Traditional Folk Arts Mentorship. She has appeared in films, radio interviews, books, newspapers and magazines nationwide and is endorsed by the Wyoming, South Dakota and Nevada Arts Councils as well as by the South Dakota and Nebraska Speakers Bureau. “V” has produced five CDs of original music and one documentary. Nothing Fancy But Guaranteed Authentic!
