

JASON AYRES

There are two kinds of people in this world. Those who have discovered Jason Ayres, and those who are just about to.

With his songs receiving airplay across mainstream media outlets like 96fm, Mix 94.5 and the ABC, and his constant drive to perform live around Australia, it's hard to ignore his ever growing presence in the Australian music scene.

WA based singer-songwriter Jason Ayres delivers a unique brand of alternative country. By taking deep heartfelt songs with a somber country sound, and polishing them into a catchy clean package, his albums and live shows have always remained accessible to a wide range of listeners while staying loyal to his original sound.

Having performed to sold out crowds in iconic music venues around the country, his intimate live show and eloquent stage presence have earned him a spot performing on stage alongside AMERICA in QLD in July 2017, as well as supporting international chart toppers like Dionne Warwick, Anastacia, Rick Astley, Hot Chocolate, Manhattan Transfer, Blood Sweat & Tears, Steve Poltz, Gary Puckett & the Union Gap and Midge Ure (Ultravox), as well as Australian icons like Russell Morris, Shannon Noll, Leo Sayer, The Whitlams, Thirsty Merc, Kasey Chambers, James Reyne, Daryl Braithwaite, Mark Seymour, Jon Stevens, Ian Moss, Adam Harvey, Tex Perkins, Eurogliders, Black Sorrows, Mental As Anything, 1927, Pseudo Echo, James Cruikshank (The Cruel Sea), Wendy Matthews, Dean Ray, Karise Eden and many more.

Jason Ayres is currently promoting his latest EP and his national tour "Got My Heart". His intimate shows have taken him across Australia multiple times, with SOLD OUT shows in Perth, Melbourne, Sydney and Brisbane.
