

LUST

©Anouschka Pearlman

I'm not that innocent;
I've had my beauty bent
I'll take the hook and chain
Lord knows, I got no shame.
I know that smiles can lie,
And lies can satisfy
Don't need no words or deeds;
I just want to feel your heat

I'm in the mood for lust
Forget about love; forget about trust
I'm in the mood for something anon-non-non-namous
I'm in the mood for- lust

Forget your vanity,
And all banality,
'Cause when the lights are dimmed
Egos just won't mean a thing
I got my thick skin on,
Don't need to right no wrong
You can kiss me head to toe,
It's ok babe, as long as you know that um,

I'm in the mood for lust
Forget about love; forget about trust
I'm in the mood for something anon-non-non-namous
I'm in the mood for- lust

I don't mean to be rude,
But I'm really, really, really
Just in the mood for lust
